2004 Kamptal Lamm Grüner Veltliner Johannes

Hirsch's decision to bottle all his wines under screwcap means that they take a little longer to develop. The powerful 2004 Lamm feels like a panther, sculpted, muscular, poised; the core seems coiled, constricted, seething with potential energy. Best to wait another five years; if you open it now, put it in a decanter and be patient. Terry Theise Selections/Michael Skurnik Wines, Syosset, NY
