2007ER RIESLING

MEDDERSHEIMER RHEINGRAFENBERG
ROBERT M. PANER, JR.'S

The WINE ADVOCATE®
90pts

This wine smells of ripe purple plum and nectarine, backed by a Sauvignon-like field of herbs and grasses. This Riesling really becomes complex and energized in the mouth, with plum, nectarine, and black currant shot through with herbal extracts and a memorably pungent, subtly smoky minerality, and finishing with invigoratingly tart fruit skin and bright lemon in counterpoint with smoke and a hint of honey.
